The Community Collaborative Perspective

what matters.™

“...our Collaborative enthusiastically supports 211.

In our rural community access is a primary concern, the 211 system would be a welcome aid to our efforts. Having a centralized location for relevant community and agency information would reduce time invested in resource identification thus improving agency efficiency.

Additionally, 211 would provide a direct line for clients thus freeing considerable agency time for truly urgent or emergency needs.”

“2-1-1 would be a godsend to rural Manistee County. It is very difficult to let people know all the resources available to them. 2-1-1 can do this quickly and efficiently. Such a service will save countless man hours as well as dollars for the agencies that have had to fend the "Where Do I Go for This" calls. All the agencies in Manistee look forward to the implementation of 2-1-1.”

“Recently I have heard more and more discussion about the need for persons in the community to have access to service information. They don't know where to turn for help. They don't know how to match their need with what agency or organization might offer a service. With that said, I believe there is a greater need now for 2-1-1 than there ever has been before. I think it is related to the poor economy in Michigan. “
